

President Harding's saddle horse, Harbell, entered in the National Horse Show and one of the winners.
Harris & Ewing.

The procession following the casket at the funeral of Richard Croker at Glencairn, Sandford, County Dublin. Behind the priest are, left to right: Mr. R. B. Garrett, Mrs. Croker and Alderman O'Neill of Dublin. In the next group are Mrs. Griffith, President Arthur Griffith and Mr. Kevin O'Shiel, who represented Michael Collins. Mrs. Florence Norris, Mr. Croker's daughter, is seen in the background, at the right. Underwood

Senora Jose Marti, wife of the former Secretary of War of Cuba, one of the most beautiful women of Havana.

Margalo Gilmore, one of the players in the successful play "He Who Gets Slapped," at the Garrick Theater.

A scene in Budapest to-day. The American Red Cross station, at which all who apply are fed one meal a day. Pacific and Atlantic.

WESTCHESTER BILTMORE COUNTRY CLUB RYE, NEW YORK

NOW OPEN. One of the greatest, most luxurious establishments of its kind in the world. Four hundred beautiful rooms with baths. Varied and unequalled sport facilities—Summer and Winter.

Two 18-hole and one 9-hole golf courses—one reversible. Polo field, bridle paths, tennis and squash courts, children's playground. MANUSING Island, in connection, offers yachting, bathing and pleasures of The Casino. Three hundred acres have been landscaped for private homes.

Under the personal direction of
JOHN McE. BOWMAN